A CLASS POEM

By Beatrice Hardenbergh

We all began a journey
Twelve long years ago;
But now that it is finally finished,
Some are sorry to go.
We've met lots of new friends,
At every step we took;
Some of them were human,
And some were in a book.
Our teachers have been kind,
And helped us in every way;
We're grateful for that help
And wish we could repay.
We've gained a little knowledge—
More and more each day;
It helps us in our tasks
More than we can say.
We're sorry we have to leave,
We've had a lot of fun;
But the old must move on
And make room for the young.
Well, good-bye Alma Mater—
We'll miss your friendly walls;
But you've given us a background
To guide us in strange halls.

A DEDICATION . . .

In the years between the commencement exercises of the first graduation class of Liberty High School and our graduation in June, 1947, much has been done to enlarge the curriculum of the school to enable the generation of tomorrow to be well equipped in meeting life's challenge.

More than half a century of progress has been mirrored in the activities of us, the fiftieth graduation class. Within the pages of this book will be found a record of the year, our last year in L.H.S.

It seems only fitting that we dedicate these pages to that spirit of progress which has brought us so far, in the hope that another fifty years of fruitful service lie ahead for Liberty High School.

CLASS SONG

"In Ourselves the Future Lies"—
We raise this motto to the skies.
It's our task to do our best
To prove that we have met this test.
As we leave you, L.H.S.,
To take our places with the rest,
May we ever think of you
When our hopes come true.

ALMA MATER

Here's to thee dear L.H.S.,
Give her the praise that's due.
Students pledge your reverence
To Alma Mater true.
Where for us life's path may lead,
May our every thought and deed,
Ever to our school days lead.
L.H.S.

SENIOR RECORD . . .

Now as we, the class of '47, are about to become freshmen in the School of Life let us reminisce over our experiences since we became freshmen in Liberty High School.

With the election of Norbert Matzinger as President, assisted by Vice-President Tom Finn, Secretary Wesley Many and Treasurer Allan Hasbrouck, we officially became the freshman class in the fall of 1943, diffidently ready for what the future held in store.

In December we staged our first important social function, "Holiday Inn," a Christmas party, under the direction of Miss Mauer.

As sophomores Tom Finn moved up to the presidency with Allan Hasbrouck, vice-president, and Bill Haflin, treasurer. Wesley Many again held the position of secretary, which office he was to retain throughout the succeeding elections.

Again a class party highlighted our social affairs for the year.

That spring, class elections were held for the following year. Irving Doynow was chosen president and David Johnson, vice-president. Bill Haflin, who retained his position of treasurer, had to relinquish it in the middle of the year to Norbert Matzinger, due to his holding too many points.

Although not part of our class history it may be interesting to note that several world events made important history during our sophomore year. In May, 1945, V-E Day was proclaimed, a month after President Roosevelt's death on April 12. That summer Japan surrendered, thus ending World War Two.

By the time we reached the status of juniors we had gathered enough courage to undertake something never before attempted in L.H.S. Under the direction of Mrs. Dowling we wrote our own Junior play, "Uncle Harry Comes To," which was presented in April.

That spring it was our class' turn to produce the Student Council officers for the following year. Irving Doynow, president, and Donald Huffmire, vice-president, were the student body's choice.

Under the leadership of Donald Hansen we at last could proudly be known as the Senior Class. Larry Klein and Allan Hasbrouck were vice-president and treasurer respectively.

We started the year successfully with the magazine drive, in which the sales nearly doubled those of the previous year, making this the largest drive ever staged.

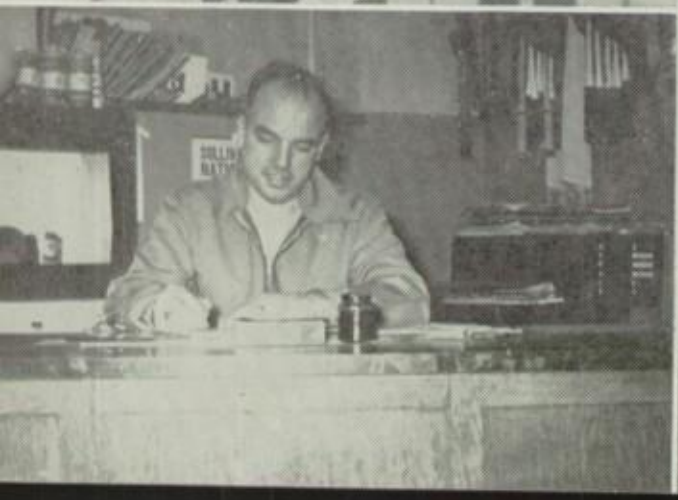

Another outstanding event was the senior-faculty basketball game in March, in which both boys' and girls' senior teams were victorious. This was the first time that the faculty was completely defeated.

Other highlights of the year were the senior play, "Spring Green," produced in November under Miss Rice's direction, the banquet in February and Senior Day in April. The event climaxing our social functions was the prom held in May.

With pride we, the fiftieth graduating class, can read over this brief outline which brings back memories of happy and eventful years, and feel that we have made a worthwhile and memorable imprint on the pages of our alma mater, L.H.S.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION . . .

L to R—William V. Mauer, Nelson Krum, Dr. George Freer (president), Mrs. J. O. Newkerk, Nial Sherwood.

PRINCIPAL . . .

Mr. David E. Panebaker was born in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, on March 17, 1900. When he was a young lad the family moved to Hanover. After three years in Hanover High School he entered Gettysburg Academy from which he graduated in 1919. He received his B.A. from Gettysburg College in 1922 and later earned his M.A. at New York University.

After serving as principal in two other schools he came to Liberty in 1931. In the sixteen years that Mr. Panebaker has been principal many things have been added to the curriculum. His first attempt to improve the school was the addition of a course in instrumental music under the leadership of Telleta Bourne. The music department has since grown until now there are both an instrumental and a vocal instructor. With band and orchestra came the need of an activity period when these two organizations could rehearse and other groups, interested in special projects such as debating, dramatics, Junior Red Cross, could meet. A course in home economics was added to the high school curriculum. This was soon followed by the addition of a new wing to house a metal and wood work shop and a cafeteria.

In 1940 a new venture was undertaken when a Student Council was inaugurated. This was closely followed by the formation of the Safety Patrol, a group of students who have charge of the halls during the passing of classes. To recognize high standards of scholarship, leadership, character and service this school received a charter from the National Honor Society for Secondary Schools enabling it to set up the junior and senior honor societies. Football came to Liberty High in the same year that Mr. Panebaker did and has been with us ever since. Baseball has been resumed after a lapse of several years while track and wrestling have been newly added to the sports group.

In the near future Mr. Panebaker hopes to add a grade supervisor and a guidance teacher to his faculty.

CLASS PROPHECY--1947 . . .

As David E. Panebaker, Professor of School Management at Liberty University, reaches to change the station on his new television set (manufactured by E. & H. Dubs, Inc.), a Stern voice, that of radio announcer Irving Doynow, retired center of Kingston's professional basketball team, interrupts "Portia Faces John's Other Wife," starring Tiby Fradin and Winston Miller, brought to you through the courtesy of John's third wife.

"We interrupt this program to bring you the latest on the Haflin kidnaping case. We take you now to the Ferndale County Court House."

Honorable Judge Richard DePuy pounds his gavel for silence as the jury files in led by Harry Winand, captain of Navy's winning football team. He is followed by Seymour Fiddle, mayor of Parksville and Fred Weinstein, police commissioner.

Stanley Rubenzahl, chief photographer on Graham Russell's "Neversink Gazette," rushes in just in time to snap a picture of Marion Norris, composer of the current hit, "'Till The End of Klein." As the bulb fails to flash, Ed Vogel falls out of the chandelier and comes to the rescue to take the picture. Just then, Jerry Hadden, author of the famous book "How to Psychoanalyze a Worm," takes his seat.

Pleading the case for defendant Norbert Matzinger, John Grove's first statement is a request for delay of the trial. Prosecuting attorney Joan Costello, internationally famous woman lawyer, protests this action.

As Professor Panebaker disgustedly turns the dial for another station, he sees the famous quartet of Michael Finn, Renee Maitre, Marion Eggers and Martin Somers, conducted by Margaret Searl, singing, "To wash your clothes or bake your cakes, use Margie Kelly's pure snow flakes!"

At this time station WLHS is presenting its weekly music program starring Beverly Kenworthy, contralto, and Lawrence Meltzer, tenor, accompanied by Ruth Lebendiger on the oboe. Miss Lebendiger is now known throughout the world for her scientific investigations for finding the lost chord.

In competition with this, station WMHS is showing its program "Ladies, Be Satisfied." While commentator Nancy Kays is giving her daily recipe, her secretary, Helen Kirk, is preparing to introduce the guest speaker, Raquel Heller. Miss Heller appears because her new book, "Wild Animals of Which I Have Heard," is due to be published within the next ten years.

Due to station engineer Roselyn Spatt, a complete blackout occurs at this point, causing Prof. Panebaker to return to the trial report.

Mary Muccino, ringmaster at Mary Bullock's flee circus, has just left the witness stand and court clerk, Ethel Susser, is summoning Beatrice Hardenbergh, currently engaged at Jean Carpenter's scientific laboratory perfecting a poison for beetles. She quoted a statement made by Matzinger in December, 1946 in room 30 at Liberty High School giving a clear indication of his criminal intentions. At this point professional ski-jumper, Anne Sullivan, jumps up to protest introduction of any such testimony. When Judge DePuy threatens to hold her in contempt of court, she demands her lawyer, Nathalie Ordin.

A commotion in the back of the room draws the attention of police officer James McCarthy and it is found that an argument over their products has begun between Carolyn Heidt, salesman for Adler Elevated Shoes, and Anne Weyrauch, head of the Norm Cross shoe manufacturing company.

By this time Ruth Huschke, breeder of the yet-unnamed cross between plant and animal, has left the stand and Donald Hansen, successful New York ditch-digger, has come forward to tell what effect the news that his son had been kidnaped had had on his co-worker, William Haflin, steam-shovel operator. He had been attending a performance of "Midsummer Night's Nightmare" written by that unbeatable combination of Enid Cross and Katherine Cypert and starring the great Shakespearean actor David Johnson.

The shock caused Mr. Haflin to faint and Doctor Tompkins (June, that is) was called. When it was found that she was not present, Eunice Freer, employed as veterinarian by the Home For Homesick Pets, attempted to revive him.

As the next witness, Jeanne Farrand, ascends the stand, the male members of the jury crane their necks for a better view. She is to testify to the whereabouts of her fifth husband, accused as Matzinger's accomplice. He had been having dinner at Corscardi's French restaurant with Martin Brownstein, whose Book "Of Moose and Men," has just won the Pulitzer Prize for furthering relations among Meese and has awarded him the title, Dean of Barnyard.

The entrance of Sylvia Seiken, fashion editor for the Coal Miner's Handbook, accompanied by her cartoonist, Carolyn Schumm, creates a disturbance because of her new hat designed by Madame Phyllis Mergott and her bootblack assistants, Wesley Many and Meyer Rosh.

A ring of the door bell forces the professor to shut off the television and upon going to the door, he finds that June Gorton has just left his Evening Times on the doorstep. Splashed across the front in banner head are the words: Vernon Beseth Wins Nation-Wide Beauty Contest. The three judges were LaVelle Markley, tobacco auctioneer for Lucky Strike; Rose Stimel who, being brave enough to sit on the bomb, is chairman of the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission, and John Heinle, multi-billionaire.

Turning to the sport page, Prof. finds Tommy Finn in the pool room (behind the eight-ball). Pauline Goldwasser, world-famous jockey, has just broken the record by bringing in five winners in one day, while it was noted that Phillip Mullen bet 20 to 1 on the other horse that ran.

An advertisement at the bottom of the page announces the fact that the book of the month club is now offering Alice Moffett's autobiography, "Little Miss Moffett in Wonderland."

Prof. finally turns to the back page and after reading that the former Betty Jane Havey and her husband have become the proud parents of quintuplets, he notices that the next attractions at the neighborhood theatre will be "The Outlaw's Brother-in-law," starring Katherine Scott and Douglas Bowers. Under this, Dolores Yaun advertises that the featured attraction at her Penny Arcade this week is Sue Teller, who reads your future in the tea leaves.

Afraid that he may miss the verdict, Mr. Panebaker tunes in again just as "How Dumb Can You Be?", television's most popular quiz program, is naming next week's contestants.

Harold Allison, deep-sea diver, will appear along with Shirley Panebaker, whom you all know as Mrs. Anthony, and Mildred Lowy, modeler of clothes designed especially for the woman who is 5 feet 4 inches or under.

Nora Mosher, famous mathematician who succeeded Miss Knoll at L.H.S., and Robert Delamarter, lecturer on how to spend two months in a hospital profitably, are to be guest contestants.

This is followed by station identification and the soothing voice of Jean Carroll, who announces that she is available if anyone needs someone to sit in the refrigerator and see if the light really goes out when the door is closed. She then introduces her partner, Virginia Comfort, who can be hired for a nominal sum to follow the water down the drain and see where it goes.

The next fifteen minutes of the latest news, sponsored by Joyce Morris, currently replacing Phillip, is narrated by Walter Winchel's stand-in, Irene Krum.

At this point Prof. is again interrupted, this time by the telephone. Bruce Denman, the president of the board of education, has just received two complimentary tickets to a new puppet show, starring Donald Huffmire and produced by Marilyn Sacks, and requests Mr. Panebaker to go with him.

In an attempt to get back to the trial before announcement of the verdict, the Professor, passing a station, hears a terrific racket. In fear that the television set has broken down, he stops to investigate. It turns out to be nothing more than Spike Jones' band which now has Audrey Griebel and Beverly Freer, each playing a half of the clarinet, and Regina Kile playing on the A flat tin pan.

Again his attention is caught by the voice of Harry Rubenzahl who, on his program of helpful household hints, is today telling all his admiring listeners the secret of being a successful farmer's wife. He is followed by Charlotte Main who tells the ladies how to successfully manage their husbands. Her suggestion for today is that to get your husband to watch the children while you go out with Van Johnson, you must first get Van Johnson.

Finally the station with the trial report is located as Estelle Kessler, foreman of the jury, who is now Georgia's undisputed Governor, is ready to read the verdict. But just then a great disturbance is caused by the entrance of detective Allen Hasbrouck, who calls out for a halt in the proceedings. He has with him professional hobo Sheldon Cohen, who, in spite of his shabby clothes, can be recognized by the gold-engraved plaque around his neck: Six points in the 1946-47 Duso season. "Sol" brings the trial to a sensational close by his startling testimony that just as he was passing by the Hafin home, he saw Kilroy come out and force the child into a car; thereby exonerating Matzinger.

Prof. Panebaker sighs deeply and, satisfied that his former pupil has been acquitted, he sets off for the puppet show.

Upon entering high school, this year's Junior Class elected Alvin Benjamin, Marylou Murray, Berna Deinhardt and Betty Rylen as president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The outstanding event of the year was the Freshman Stampede, one of the most successful Frosh parties ever staged in L.H.S.

The following year, President Carl Killian, Vice-President Carol Rosch, Secretary Marylou Murray and Treasurer Betty Rylen took over the trials and tribulations of the class.

Except for a class party, the year was an uneventful one.

This year the elected officials were Frank Jewell, president; Albert VanDyke, vice-president; Jeanne Corcoran, secretary and Joyce Rexford, treasurer.

Under their leadership, the class got their heads together and produced two money-making events. A class party, "Do Drift Inn," featured Grossinger entertainers and the annual play, entitled "Wedding Spells," was produced under Mrs. Dowling's direction.

L. to R. (Seated) Gloria Katz, Sidney Rappaport, Sophia Bonnell, Joan White, Helen Teller, Jean Miller, Katherine Pando, Rhoda Gregory, Thomas Young, Robert Gabrielson (president), Carol Field, Sylvia Kaplan, Frances Gavitt, Doris Kalty, Margaret Lodge, Bernice Weitzel, Joan Dowe, Ann Cronk. (First row) Beth Green, Joan Gilmour, Judy Davis, Felicia Levy, Jean Hotchkin, Eileen Abramson, Betty Fraser, Lillian Pross, Maureen Doherty, Dorothy Gehrt, Eleanor Keator, Helen Mesawich, Lois Bailey, Nancy Kinne, Joan Freer, Elsie Kruger, Miss Frances English, Mrs. Eugenie Dowling, Miss Marguerite Mauer. (Second row) Robert Davis, Helen Morgans, Iona Smith, Doris Beckers, Katherine Kuhn, Margaret Main, Alice Edwards, Esther Gregory, Greta Waldas, Patricia Gehrt, Helen Burns, Ruth Rothberg, Helen Kocijanski, Lila Rosenberg, Robert Cross, Jules Siegel, Thomas Brady, Lorraine Schumm, Alda Keller. (Third row) Robert Eggers, Murray Silverman, Bernard Fried, Wilson DeMyer, John Clark, Harold Sherwood, Edward Levine, Martin Goldstein, Sanford Engelhardt, Dale Shout, Paul Tuchman, Richard Poley, Richard Searl, Andrew Helgesen, Stuart Russell, Nelson Stickle, David Cohen, Fred Doetsch, Harold Stier. (Fourth row) William Shamrock, Marvin Solod, Steve Kreindler, Otto Frey, James Goode, Maurice Gorowitz, Daniel Moore, Murray Sisselman, Richard Rose, George Humphrey, Walter Stecher, Charles Tewksbury, Richard Fraser, Robert Mero, Kenneth Bartholoff, Stephen Kurpil, Robert Lebovitz, Gerald Sorkin.

In their freshman year the class of 1949 elected Bob Gabrielson, Tom Young, Rhoda Gregory and Carol Field as president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

The production of "La Fiesta," which was received by the students of L.H.S. with much approval, spurred the Frosh onward.

To lead them this year the class elected Bob Gabrielson, president; Carol Field, vice-president; Tom Young, secretary, and Rhoda Gregory, treasurer.

As this is written, their class party, centered about a circus theme, was in the planning stage.

THE FRESHMAN CLASS . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Marianna Suslosky, Charlotte Steele, Florence Brien, Velma Ernst, Frances DiFranco, Anne Watson, Mardell Matzinger, Irving Tanzman (President), Edward Fogarty, Douglas Krum, Sandra Hahn, Sandra Fox, Margaret Bell, Betty Gavitt, Sondra Smith, Doris Poley, Marion Budow. (First Row) Sally Gunsberg, Carol Nielson, Catherine Sullivan, Joan Labouseur, Regina Vantran, Margaret Fogarty, Ethel DeFilippi, Virginia Hardenbergh, Eleanor Mowshowitz, Shirley Hopkins, Adele Luxemburg, Norma Holland, Patty Mullen, Adele Friedman, Ruth Lerner, Marion Wiseman, Mary Hunt. (Second Row) Gloria Blade, Frances Hulse, Ilene Klaw, Bertha Conklin, Jenny Soule, Virginia Alzman, Ann Abplanalp, Bernice Decker, Erma Knack, Zita Edwards, Ruth Brooks, Ruth Budow, Helen Bressler, Phyllis Bribitzer, Mary Gunderson, Miss Helen Burczak. (Third Row) Robert Keller, Jack Denman, James Thompson, William Mullen, Elwood Ackerly, Howard Glazer, Ernie Shapiro, Barry Ross, Richard Gross, Lester Hogenkamp, Ralph Atkins, Lester Borden, Peter Kurpil, Stanley Goldsmith, William Delamarter, Mr. Matthew Gadziala. (Fourth Row) James Kenworthy, Carl Kessler, Gerald Orseck, Sheldon Zweck, Gerald Green, George Coger, Roger Hyzer, Robert Burns, William Steele, Arthur Kramer, Jerome Bullock, Richard Slater, Harold Muthig, John Pierce, George Garfinkle.

Upon the threshold of their high school career, the class of 1950 elected as president, Irving Tanzman; vice-president, Edward Fogarty; secretary, Douglas Krum, and as treasurer, Mardell Matzinger.

The all-important event of the year was the class party which put them on a good start toward four years of productive activity.

Anne Sullivan leaves the detention room.

Ethel Susser leaves her ability to talk to Anne Cronk.

Sue Teller leaves her 12 mile southward jaunts to Helen Hartman.

June Tompkins doesn't leave anything—takes along the song "Danny Boy."

Ed Vogel leaves his burnt out flash bulbs to Al VanDyke.

Anne Weyrauch leaves her place on the chess team to Lillian Pross.

Harry Winand leaves high school to hunt "deer."

Fred Weinstein doesn't leave Sylvia to anyone.

Dolores Yaun leaves her name (ho hum) to any tired junior.

THE COMMENT STAFF . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Alvin Benjamin, Helen Ambra, Ethelyn Wadler, Sylvia Sokoloff, Mildred Lowy (Co-editor), Beverly Antzis, Audrey Griebel, Maureen Sullivan, Stanley Rubenzahl. (First Row) Mrs. Eugenie Dowling, Felicia Levy, Lillian Pross, Berna Deinhardt, William Haflin (Co-editor), Irving Doynow, Edward Vogel, Ruth Lerner, Joan Labouseur, Miss Helen Burczak. (Second Row) Herman Slodzina, Roselyn Spatt, Sylvia Seiken, Ruth Lebendiger, Anne Weyrauch, Beth Green, Carol Rosch, Wilson DeMyer. (Third Row) Harold Stier, Adele Luxemburg, Eleanor Mowshowitz, Marilyn Sacks, Harriet Golant, Sylvia Kaplan, Tiby Fradin, Jules Siegel.

Since its organization in 1932, The Comment staff has been striving for bigger and better publications.

Two conferences, the Empire State School Press Conference in Syracuse in the fall, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference in the spring were attended by various members of the staff.

The Comment, which received 161 points out of a possible perfect 200, was awarded a "Superior" rating by the judges of the Empire State School Press.

QUILL AND SCROLL

New members of the Quill and Scroll were initiated February 13th in an impressive ceremony by candlelight. This honorary association is composed of students who have distinguished themselves in any of the many fields of journalism.

VARSITY DEBATE CLUB . . .

By finishing in second place at a tournament in Poughkeepsie on December 7, the varsity debaters started a new season. This was followed by exchanging debates with Jeffersonville of which L.H.S. won four out of seven. The team also participated in three rounds of debate for the Interscholastic Debating League of Eastern New York, which was terminated by an all day tournament. On April 25 and 26, four members took part in the National Forensic League at Syracuse.

SEMI-EXPERIENCED DEBATE CLUB

A second place banner was brought back from Poughkeepsie by the inexperienced debaters after taking eight out of ten rounds. In exchange debates with Jeffersonville, the team won one out of seven and were then classed as semi-experienced debaters. For the remainder of the season, meets with local schools were prevalent.

L. to R. (Seated) Eleanor Mowshowitz, Sylvia Kaplan, Felicia Levy. (Standing) Miss Helen Burczak, Harold Stier, Joan Labouseur, Gerald Sorkin, Richard Gross.

NATIONAL SENIOR HONOR SOCIETY . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Donald Huffmire, Irving Doynow, Mildred Lowy, David Johnson (President), Shirley Panebaker, Norbert Matzinger, Alvin Benjamin. (First Row) George Schriever, Eunice Freer, Mrs. Ida Hasbrouck, Helen Kirk, Sheldon Cohen, Donald Hansen. (Second Row) Beth Green, Anne Sullivan, Maureen Sullivan, LaVelle Markley, Jane Heidt, Helen Ambra. (Third Row) William Hafin, Raquel Heller, Ruth Lebendiger, Frances Gavitt, Judy Davis, Tiby Fradin, Harold Stier.

In 1940 the Liberty High School Chapter Number 2314 received its charter from the national headquarters. Since that time its ranks have opened each year to admit new members chosen by the faculty because of their high standards of character, their ability to lead, their constant willingness to render service and their high standing in scholarship. Membership in this society is one of the most coveted honors in any high school for it represents the fundamental objectives of the best school citizenship.

There were twenty-five members in the chapter during 1946-47 including fourteen inducted during the year.

DRAMATIC CLUB . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Beverly Antzis, Sylvia Sokoloff, Shirley Kranas, Mary Bullock, Anne Sullivan, Harriet Golant, Raquel Heller, Joan Freer, Jean Corcoran. (First Row) Miss Ethel Rice, John Edwards, Ethelyn Wadler, Tiby Fradin, Mary Joyce Rexford, Frances Hulse, Virginia Hardenbergh, Barbara Melnick, Jerome Bullock, Stanley Schneider, (Second Row) Stanley Goldsmith, Jean Scarvalone, Helen Hartman, Frances DiFranco, Sandra Hahn, Ralph Atkins

By electing Anne Sullivan as president, the Senior Dramatic Club started off their 1946-47 year with Miss Rice as faculty advisor. The other officers are: Vice-president, Harriet Golant; Secretary, Mary Bullock; Treasurer, Shirley Kranas.

In assembly the group showed their accomplishments by giving two plays: "Jiminy Christmas," starred Frances DiFranco, Philip Mullen, Beverly Antzis and Stanley Schneider; "Farewell, Cruel World" was cast with Sally Gunsberg, Harriet Golant and Jerome Bullock. They have also produced "Crime Conscious" in Duso competition with an all male cast of Irving Doynow, Bill Haflin, Bernard Rexford and David Johnson.

L. to R. (Seated) David Johnson, Norbert Matzinger, Beverly Antzis, Shirley Panebaker, Irving Doynow (President), Eunice Freer, Jean Corcoran, Donald Hansen, Philip Mullen. (First Row) James McCarthy, Albert VanDyke, Phyllis Mergott, Tiby Fradin, Sue Teller, Jane Heidt, Stanley Schneider, Wesley Many, Miss Ethel Rice. (Second Row) John Edwards, Anne Sullivan, Raquel Heller, Nathalie Ordin, Harriet Golant, Barbara Melnick, William Haflin.

THESPIANS

The Thespian organization is an honor society which initiates new members once a year. Any person who has 10 points which he received doing back-stage work, acting, or in any other way helping to produce a play, is admitted. The group sponsored the Duso plays which have become well known in our school and appeared in Ellenville and Monticello.

STUDENT COUNCIL . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Albert VanDyke, Gerald Orseck, Frances Gavitt, Virginia Comfort, Irving Doynow (President), Donald Huffmire, Donald Hansen, Anne Sullivan. (Standing) Miss Mae Austin, John Edwards, Maureen Doherty, Richard Poley, William DeLamarter, Bertha Conklin, Harold Stier, Miss Ruth Knoll.

Led by Irving Doynow and Donald Huffmire, the Student Council tried its utmost to get full cooperation from the student body this year.

In October, the Council joined the Duso Student Council Organization and the National Organization of Student Councils located in Washington, D. C. These organizations, by informative literature, helped the Student Council by suggesting tasks which could be undertaken.

During the course of the year the local organization successfully carried on the Dime Drive and the clothing drive. It also appointed members to the following committees: Calendar, Assembly, Financial and Activity Charter.

Training students in basic democratic principles, the Student Council elections are held each spring in preparation for the next school year. Candidates are nominated by petition and a full dress campaign is waged, climaxed by the addresses of campaign managers in assembly and voting by the entire student body. Thus the Council prepares students for their roll in our nation's government.

JUNIOR RED CROSS COUNCIL

Under the direction of Miss English, the faculty advisor, the Junior Red Cross has done much to aid less fortunate people. In November they sponsored a drive and collected $152.65. This money was used during the last few months to bring joy to sick children and to our wounded veterans.

Last Christmas the organization filled 100 boxes with useful and entertaining items, and during the year two afghans were completed.

With the money left over the Junior Red Cross bought a Victrola and records which brightened the hours of the unfortunate wounded veterans.

BANKERS' CLUB

The Bankers' Club is made up of two representatives from each home room in high school.

Every Tuesday morning the members try to get everyone in their home rooms to bank. The goal is 100 percent.

Meetings are held on Wednesday first period whenever they are called by Mrs. Calhoun.

L. to R. (Seated) Mrs. Hannah Calhoun, Norma Holland, Carol Rosch, Edna Bressler, Jane Heidt, Alda Keller, Adele Friedman, Carol Field. (First Row) Carolyn Heidt, Lorraine Schumm, Joan Labouseur, Mary Lou Murray, Sydney Rappaport, Theresa Watson, Jean Carroll, Eva Jane DeLamarter. (Second Row) Leo Somers, Jean Carpenter, Betty Gavitt, Anita Novick, Marilyn Sacks, Frances Gavitt, Alice Edwards, Margaret Lodge, Max Seiken.

BIOLOGY CLUB . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Nathalie Bist, Helen Morgans, Eleanor Keator. (Standing) Esther Gregory, Mrs. Jean Wendler, Ruth Rothberg.

Although the Biology Club has few members it has managed, under the able guidance of Mrs. Wendler, to prepare numerous slides for laboratory work, and to study the development of the chick embryo. As the season permitted, they studied the various birds, flowers, insects and leaves common to the vicinity.

MATH CLUB

Under the direction of Miss Knoll, this group has been given the opportunity to become familiar with instruments based upon the principles of mathematics. They learn how to use the slide rule and the sextant, work math puzzles and study other topics for which the regular class periods do not provide time.

L. to R. (Seated) Paul Tuchman, Walter Stecher, Jerry Hadden, William Stoddard, Stewart Russell. (Standing) Wilson DeMeyer, Graham Russell, Miss Ruth Knoll, Richard Fraser, Gerald Sorkin.

SAFETY PATROL . . .

L. to R. (Seated, First Row) Carl Killian, John Edwards, Sheldon Cohen, David Johnson, Donald Hansen, Harry Winand, Alvin Benjamin. (Second Row) Helen Ambra, Jane Heidt, Alda Keller, Beth Green, Shirley Panebaker, Beatrice Hardenbergh, Jeanne Corcoran, Kathryn Sager, Jeanne Farrand. (Standing, First Row) Maureen Sullivan, Mildred Lowy, Norbert Matzinger, Irving Doynow, Graham Russell, Robert Mero, Steve Kreindler, Daniel Moore, Tom Young, Eunice Freer. (Second Row) Frank Jewell, Donald Huffmire, Ruth Lebendiger, Anne Weyrauch, Nathalie Ordin, Joan Gilmour, Carol Field, Beverly Kenworthy, George Dexheimer, Mr. Herman Swettman. (Third Row) Harold Stier, Seymour Fiddle, Eileen Abramson, Sue Teller, Sylvia Kaplan, Judy Davis, William Hafin, Bruce Denman.

Numbering this year over sixty people, the hall patrol unit of L.H.S. functioned most of the year without a faculty advisor, due to Mr. Calhoun's illness. However, in the tradition of the school, they managed to carry on until Mr. Swettman took over in the second term.

Keeping the halls orderly during the time classes pass is the main duty of this organization; there is also a group that stands noon duty as the students file out of the building or to the cafeteria.

Members are chosen from among sophomores, juniors and seniors by the faculty advisor, the choice is dictated by scholastic standing and leadership ability.

Jeanne Farrand (with arm band) on duty in front of Room 25.

CHARM CLUB . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Dolores Yaun, Lorraine Schumm, Mary Hunt, Mrs. Winifred White, Irene Krum, Marion Weisman, Alice Moffett. (Standing) Ruth Brooks, Charlotte Steele, Joan White, Irma Knack, Margaret Bell, Sophia Bonnell, Catherine Scott, Iona Smith, Florence Brien.

Learning about cosmetics, grooming, hair styling and such things has added to the knowledge of the girls of the Charm Club. They have studied cosmetic displays from local drug stores and have learned how to buy from them. Under the leadership of Miss Tompkins, faculty advisor, they also studied a course on better buying methods.

BACHELOR'S CLUB

At the beginning of the year there was added to the extra-curricular activities of the school the Bachelor's Club, which included the Chef's Club, formed to teach the boys how to cook and give them a chance to demonstrate their abilities. The Bachelor's Club also gives the fellows a chance to study men's clothing and to learn how to buy clothes.

Club members spent a few weeks learning about clothing. A local merchant gave them several lectures on how to choose their wearing apparel.

Cooking also made a hit with the boys and they took it up easily. If anything was extremely difficult, Miss Tompkins demonstrated first, and the boys soon turned out excellent culinary achievements.

L. to R. (Seated) Mrs. Winifred White, Harold Heinle, Richard Slater, Bruce Denman (President), Edward Fogarty, Irving Tanzman. (Standing) Nelson Stickle, Leo Somers, William Mullen, George Coger, Jerome Bullock, James Good, Jack Denman.

SPANISH CLUB. . .

L. to R. (Seated) Helen Ambra, Jeanne Corcoran, Theresa Watson, Harold Stier, Marylou Murray, Felicia Levy, Ethelyn Wadler. (First Row) James McCarthy, Jean Carroll, Tibby Fradin, Miss Marguerite Mauer, Ann Sullivan, Maureen Sullivan, George Humphrey. (Second Row) Arnold Feldstein, Sylvia Seiken, Arthur Friedman, Greta Waldas, Thelma Felberg, Robert Keeler.

Thursday morning first period El Pasatiempo, or as frequently referred to by the average student, the Spanish Club meets in room 36. There Spanish students learn something about the Spanish people and their customs and have the opportunity to practice what they learn.

Each week the program is prepared by a group of club members appointed by the president. The entertainment usually consists of a short skit and a few games, all pertaining to Spanish life and habits.

ART CLUB

This is a creative club for anyone with ability in some type of art work. There are no officers or dues and the members may work at any type of art they choose.

Students interested in art try to be present every week when the club meets and they have done outstanding work under the direction of Mr. Caivano, the art director.

THE LIBRARY CLUB . . .

This group, through mutual interest in the intricacies of running a library, meets every Thursday morning with Miss Shipka. Each club member devotes two periods weekly, gaining library experience and assuming responsibility.

CHESS CLUB

Mr. Bosman formed the chess club in 1945 and organized teams to play tournaments at noon. The newly formed five man inter-school team, inexperienced at the start, built up a fine reputation in 1947 by winning over Monticello twice and over both Fallsburg and Poughkeepsie.

STENOGRAPHERS' CLUB . . .

This group of students meets once a week to try to better their skills in shorthand, typing and office routine. The club tries for certificates in these accomplishments. On May 23, five students who have done outstanding work received diplomas for their efforts.

GYM CLUB

Liberty High School's gym club, composed of our most able athletes of both sexes, meets every Wednesday morning in the gym with Miss King and Coach George.

Demonstration practice, stunts and apparatus, and whatever else the season dictates are on the agenda of these stalwart students, who are all a part of the physical fitness and fun to be found in the gym club.

L. to R. (Seated) Carolyn Ginnings, Helen Keator, Charlotte Main, Lillian Liebowitz, Helen Burns, June Gorton. (First Row) Margaret Bressler, Carolyn Heidt, Eva Jane Delamarter, Patricia Kays, Mary Jane VanDyke. (Second Row) Miss Dorothy King, Harold Allison, Robert Osif, Roy Gorton, William Fraser, Donald Huschke, Marvin Solod, John Pearce, Otto Frey, Coach Jack George.

BAND

Members of Band—(Clarinet) Eunice Freer, Concert Mistress; Nathalie Ordin, Beatrice Hardenbergh, Beverly Kenworthy, Mardell Matzinger, Dorothy Sheeley, Janet Lindsley, Judy Davis, Margaret Main, Roberta Oestrich, Shirley Yaun, Roselyn Spatt, Elsie Kruger, Nancy Kinne; (Flute) Nancy Kays, Ilene Klaw, Adele Friedman, Betty Fraser, Jacqueline Grant; (Oboe) Alda Keller; (Bassoon) Phyllis Bribitzer; (Alto Clarinet) Audrey Griebel; (Alto Saxophone) Shirley Panebaker, James Kenworthy; (Tenor Saxophone) Joan Gilmour; (Baritone Saxophone) William Shamrock; (Cornet) David Johnson, Jane Heidt, Carol Field, Frank Jewell, Marjorie LeRoy, Margaret Searl, Gerald Sorkin, Joseph Fracasse, Richard Prepost; (Bells) Joysan Quintal; (Horn) Tom Young, Sheldon Zweck, Charles Tewksbury, Richard Searl; (Trombone) Daniel Moore, Douglas Krum, Keith Gilmour; (Baritone) Norbert Matzinger, Robert Keller, Gary Klemm; (Bass) George Dexheimer; (Percussion) Marvin Solod, June Tompkins, Maury Clark; Mr. Robert Meade, Director.

The L.H.S. band assembled this year under the leadership of Mr. Robert Meade, whose aim was to enlarge it. This organization, with an instrumentation of fifty-one, got off to an early start by playing for the firemen's field day parade. This was followed up by appearances at all home football games and marching for Armistice Day. A short concert was given for a local teacher's convention held in the high school later in the fall. "Between-the-act" numbers were rendered for the senior play.

Its major accomplishments in the spring were appearances at the festival in Suffern and the annual concert here.

DANCE ORCHESTRA

L. to R. Tom Young, George Dexheimer, Helen Shields, (First Row) James Kenworthy, Joan Gilmour, Mr. Robert Meade, Shirley Panebaker. (Second Row) Daniel Moore, Douglas Krum, David Johnson, Norbert Matzinger.

Formed in January, the dance band was unable to perform until the latter part of the year.

A group of six, they furnished popular music for dancing after some of the home basketball games and in the future hope to replace the juke box for the Friday noon hour dancing period.

Their major appearance was between the acts of the Junior Class play in March.

ORCHESTRA . . .

(Violin) Beth Green (Concert Mistress); Eunice Freer, Sally Gunsberg, Otto Frey, Ruth Lebendiger, Shirley Panebaker, Eva Jane Delamarter, Beverly Kenworthy; (Bass) George Dexheimer; (Flute) Nancy Kays, Ilene Klaw, Adele Friedman; (Oboe) Alda Keller; (Clarinet) Beatrice Hardenbergh, Mardell Matzinger; (Alto Clarinet) Audrey Griebel; (Bassoon) Phyllis Bribitzer; (Alto Saxophone) Joan Gilmour, James Kenworthy; (Tenor Saxophone) Jean Henry; (Horn) Tom Young, Richard Searl, Sheldon Zweck; (Trumpet) David Johnson, Norbert Matzinger; (Trombone) Daniel Moore, Douglas Krum; (Percussion) Marvin Solod; (Bells) Joysan Quintal; (Piano) Eleanor Mowshowitz; Mr. Robert Meade, Director.

Greatly hindered by the graduation of last year's members, the orchestra met this year with an instrumentation of thirty-one. Because of its smallness, it did not appear until Christmas time, when a short program for the Christmas Assembly was given.

Among its other appearances were performances at the festival at Suffern and in the annual spring concert.

Several of its members attended the meetings of the All-State Orchestra group.

STRING ENSEMBLE

L. to R. Beth Green, Shirley Panebaker, Eunice Freer, George Dexheimer, Ruth Lebendiger, Sally Gunsberg, Mr. Robert Meade, Beverly Kenworthy.

The string ensemble is made up of nine members of the orchestra. It has played for meetings of the Sullivan County School Men's Association and for entertainment at the Lion's Club. This group also was included on the program of the spring concert and furnished entertainment at the official visit of district grand officers to the Revonah Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star.

MIXED CHORUS . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Marilyn Sacks, Jean Carpenter, Carol Rosch, Shirley Kranas, Helen Hartman, Elsie Kruger, Sylvia Kaplan, Jean Scarvalone, Judith Davis, Margaret Lodge, Rhoda Gregory, Mary Bullock, Betty Gavitt, Joan Raffa. (First row) Sydney Rappaport, Carol Field, Berna Deinhardt, Phyllis Mergott, Lois Bailey, Beverly Antzis, Alda Keller, Barbara Switzer, Carol Nielsen, Sandra Hahn, Frances DiFranco, Shirley Panebaker, Ruth Lebendiger. (Second row) Beverly Kenworthy, Beth Green, Patricia Kays, Mary Jane VanDyke, Nancy Kinne, Marjorie LeRoy, Maury Clark, Mary Joyce Rexford, Edna Bressler, Lillian Pross, Adele Friedman, Betty Fraser, Joan Gilmour, Margaret Searl. (Third row) Seymour Fiddle, Gerald Sorkin, Harold Allison, Robert Mero, Ilene Klaw, Jeanne Corcoran, Frances Hulse, Anne Cronk, Stanley Schneider, George Dexheimer, Robert Osif, Edward Levine, Miss Edith Smith. (Fourth row) Sheldon Zweck, Marvin Solod, Tom Young, Norbert Matzinger, David Johnson, Donald Hansen, Daniel Moore, Maurice Gorowitz, Jerry Hadden, Richard Benton, James Kenworthy, Richard Searl.

HARMONY GROUPS . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Judy Davis, Alda Keller, Sylvia Kaplan, Joan Gilmour, Beth Green, Lois Bailey. (Standing) Eunice Freer, Beverly Kenworthy, Helen Shields, Shirley Panebaker, Nancy Kays, Miss Edith Smith.

The Mixed Chorus . . .

Though organized late in January, these boys and girls proved to be one of the largest choral groups ever assembled in Liberty High School. Participation in the spring concert was followed by plans for their traditional performance at the Baccalaureate.

The Harmony Groups . . .

Pinch-hitting and turning out a last-minute entertaining assembly at Christmas and also appearing at the spring concert were the main activities of the quintette and sextette. An integral part of the vocal department for several years, all members of the quintette graduate this year, with the exception of Helen Shields, already a post-graduate.

SENIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB . . .

L. to R. (Seated) Betty Fraser, Carol Field, Bernice Weitzel, Rhoda Gregory, Renee Maitre, Betty Gavitt, Shirley Kranas, Nancy Kinne, Judy Davis, Margaret Lodge, Alda Keller, Joan Labouseur, Sylvia Kaplan, Harriet Golant, Frances DiFranco, Sandra Hahn. (First Row) Miss Edith Smith, Barbara Melnick, Zita Edwards, Jean Carpenter, Marilyn Sacks, Edith Dubs, Patricia Mullen, Helen Hartman, Eileen Abramson, Margaret Fogarty, Ethel DiFilippi, Lorraine Smith, Mary Bullock, Joan Raffa, Erma Knack. (Second Row) Jean Miller, Sydney Rappaport, Edna Bressler, Mary Joyce Rexford, Leah Moffett, Anne Cronk, Carol Nielson, Lois Bailey, Margaret Main, Helen Mesawich, Lillian Pross, Dorothy Sheeley, Carol Rosch, Kaythrine Slater. (Third Row) Elsie Kruger, Joan Dowe, Lila Rosenberg, Maury Clark, Gloria Katz, Phyllis Mergott, Alice Tanck, Gloria Blade, Beverly Antzis, Barbara Switzer, Mary Jane VanDyke, Patricia Kays, Joan Freer, Jean Hotchkin, Theresa Watson.

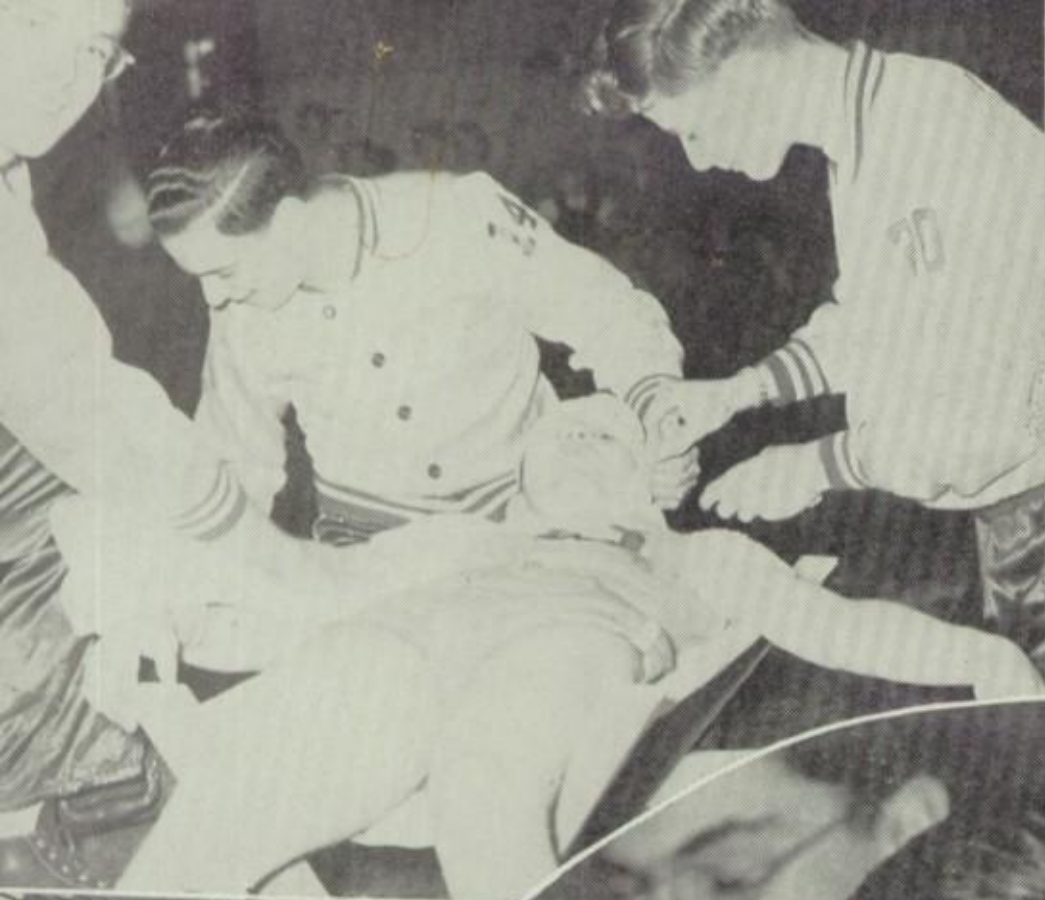

This group planned the presentation of an elaborate assembly program at Christmas but, due to Miss Smith's illness, the work ceased and their major appearance was in the spring concert.

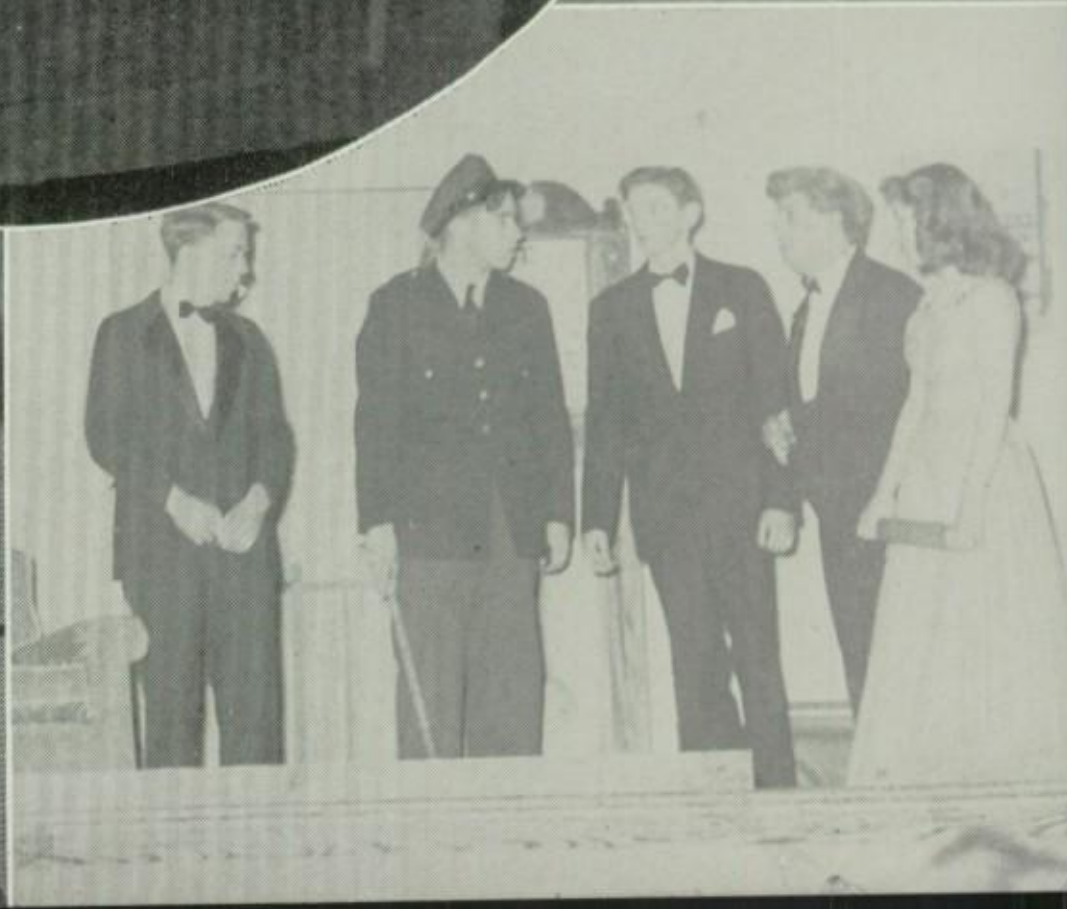

JUNIOR GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Junior High School's contribution to our music department, this organization numbers over forty girls whose experiences singing in the group lay the groundwork for similar work in high school. Several numbers were prepared and presented in the spring concert this year.

L. to R. (Seated) Tania Grossinger, Marilyn Cox, Elinor LeRoy, Sylvia Wirth, Winifred Gregory, Kate Tanofsky, Fern Abramowitz, Bernice Gunsberg, Henrietta Huebsch, Nancy Reed. (First Row) Jean Henry, Nancy Roosa, Mary Lou Bowers, Margaret Dexheimer, Betty Berthold, Sandra Abplanalp, Betty Lake, Dawne Bullock, Ethel Ernst, Marilyn Zeltman, Marjorie Cole, Miss Edith Smith. (Second Row) Nancy Tompkins, Carol Benjamin, Pearl Muzuruk, Pollyann Keller, Vicki Garfinkel, Laura Grant, Lenore Portugal, Irene Cross, Lorraine LeRoy, Clara Rose Friedman. (Third Row) Eva Porter, Erma Sinowitz, Anita Novick, Barbara LeRoy, Dorothy Zolchonock, Mary Jane Hallenbeck, Sara Lou Levenson, Shirley Yaun, Mary Trips, Sandra Slodzina.

The School Calendar for 1946-47:

SEPTEMBER

- 3—School was opened with a bang. The rusty chains crashed to the floor.
- 4—Something was scheduled for this date—oh, the second day of school was scheduled!
- 6—Matzinger came to school for the first time.
- 11—Vogel took his first picture.
- 14—The picture came out negative.
- 28—Liberty played Port Jervis under lights. Many players saw stars.
- 30—Matzinger came to school for the second time.

OCTOBER

- 2—The P. T. A. held a reasonable facsimile of a school day for the parents—they learned!
- 5—The first Victory Dance was held. The seniors got the profits—there weren't any!
- 7—Doynow tells his first joke.
- 9—Anthony blushes (who's Anthony?).
- 11—Students laugh at Doynow's first joke.
- 24—A bewildered freshman was given directions. "Get out of here."
- 30—Cohen walked around in a fog. So did everyone else—it was a foggy day.
- 31—Hallowe'en. Ghosts walked the street. Well, anyway they looked like ghosts.

NOVEMBER

- 3—Liberty scheduled a football game with a team of gorillas—but Monticello refused to play.
- 14—Basketball started. Coach George saw promising talent in Vernon "the hook" Beseth.
- 16—Class reunion of 1002 B. C.
- 21—News headline: Meyer Rosch is Missing. He was later found packed away in an old football trunk.
- 26—Big wrestling bout: Allison vs. Killer Katz.
- 27—School paid tribute to Allison's broken bones.

DECEMBER

- 2—Liberty scheduled basketball game with Vassar. Started practicing passes.
- 4—National Honor Society held annual induction of new members. Brownstein protested.
- 17—David Johnson started research, trying diet of atoms on hoboos. He was looking for the atomic bum!
- 20—School closed for Christmas vacation.
- 23—Nothing happened—no school.

JANUARY

- 6—School resumed with the crack of the whip.
- 10—Rosch hurt while wrestling after being pinned. Couldn't collect insurance because it was a safety pin!
- 17—Tom Finn contributed to rationing. To ease the liquor shortage, he had himself drained.
- 22—Dime drive ended with a toss—heads!
- 31—Liberty wins first half of Duso by beating Monticello 36-24!

FEBRUARY

- 5—Comment came out but somebody put it back again.
- 8—Matzinger came to school again.
- 12—Lincoln's birthday. Happy birthday, Abe!
- 15—Anne Sullivan invents soap called B. O. to take away the smell of Lifebuoy!
- 18—Girls' bowling league finished. Alleys recuperating.
- 24—Monticello challenged Liberty to a game of bat mitten. Haflin retaliated by challenging their matador to a bull-throwing contest.
- 28—February ends.

MARCH

- 8—Kingston squelched L.H.S. Duso aspirations, 53-41.
- 12—Cohen subscribed to Esquire. Varga girl refused to appear in magazine.

18—Seniors won annual Senior-Faculty game. The main reason for the victory was that the faculty lost.

28—Halls were unusually quiet. Vernon Beseth was absent.

APRIL

3—School closed at 3:40 for Easter vacation.

8—School still closed (Matzinger came to school late!).

16—Baseball season began. Boys got plenty of practice between snow storms.

18—Senior day. The question arose at the faculty table as to whether or not honeydew melons are also known as bald-headed coconuts.

26—Debaters win state championship for first time in school's history—practice with faculty must have helped!

MAY

5—Matzinger back and Panebaker got him!

10—Doynow got a new job. His first question was, when do we strike.

15—John L. Lewis heated his house with an oil burner.

18—Happy birthday — somebody must have been born today!

22—Seymour Fiddle cleaned his desk after receiving an eviction notice.

30—Memorial Day—another day off on parole.

JUNE

4—Larry Klein invented a shoe with a built-in hole-in-the-ground to be "shorter than she is."

11—The girls felt safe for one day—Mullen was out with a cold.

15—Matzinger back for quick review.

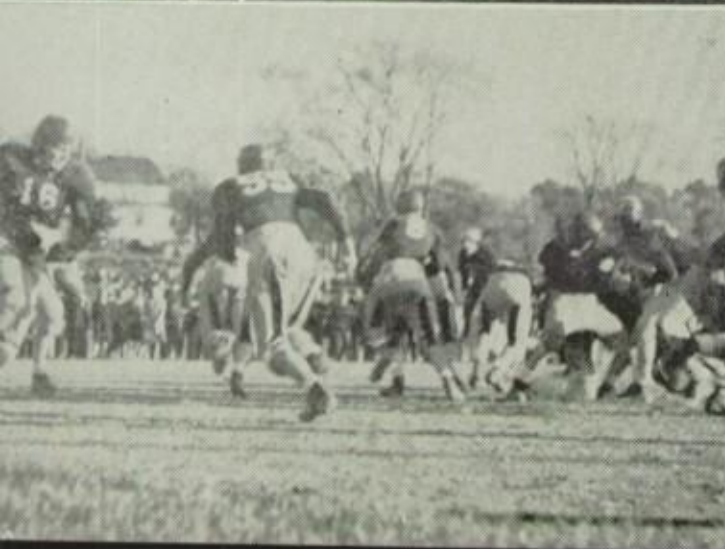

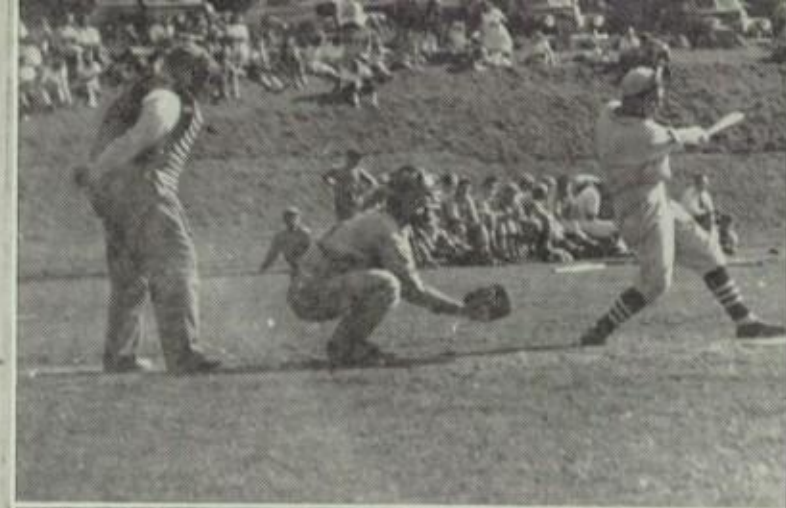

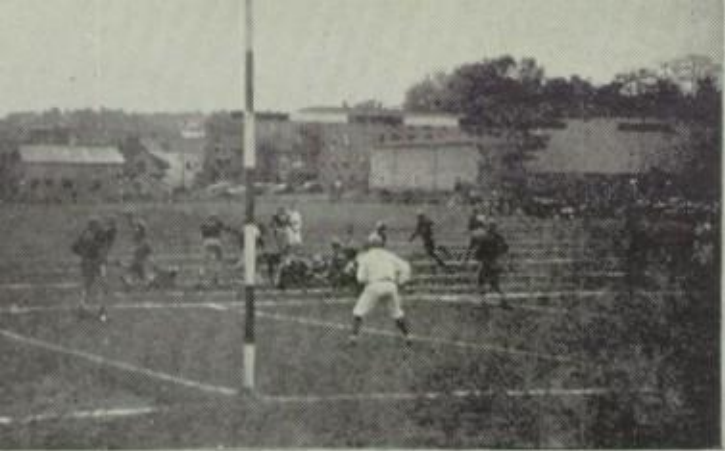

18-20—Regents week again—and drug stores praise education department for boom in aspirin sales.

22—Baccalaureate services for some seniors.

23—Report cards for everybody.

24—Commencement—it was about time!

VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM

L. to R. (First row) Robert Sherwood, Richard Benton, Charles Holland, Walter Hulse, Norbert Matzinger, Harry Winand, Ted Gregory, Vernon Beseth, Arnold Peaceman, Alvin Benjamin. (Second row) Jerry Hadden, George Dexheimer, David Johnson, George Houghtaling, John Gregory, Martin Somers, Robert DeLamarter, Winston Miller, Martin Brownstein. (Third row) Seymour Fiddle, Carl Killian, Bernard Rexford, Robert Osif, Irving Tanzman, Marvin Solod, William Stoddard, Irving Trainin. (Fourth row) Otto Frey, Frank Jewell, Richard Rose, Leo Rexford, Meyer Rosh, Adolph Worman, Arthur Townsend, Mr. Rocco Caivano, Coach Jack George.

The time has come to turn back the sports calendar and review the victories and defeats suffered by the squads of L.H.S. in the '46-'47 season. September 28 saw the night lights sparkling on our gridiron for the first time with the opening of the game against Port Jervis. The team, captained by Norb Matzinger and "Red" Winand, squeezed out a 12-6 win, the first victory over Port in six years. The highlight of the game came with three minutes to play when center Matzinger, on an unorthodox play, scored to break the tie and win the game.

On October 5 the Indians traveled to Highland Falls to be handed an 18-6 defeat accredited to the heat and a fluke pass. October 12 found Liberty battering Warwick to the tune of 25-0 as Winand scored three times. The 19th saw the gridmen downing another opponent, Walden, 26-0 as Winand, Benjamin and Hulse scored. However, the 26th of October found a different situation when Liberty battled Nyack tooth and nail for a 0-0 tie. In the month of November Liberty closed out the football season when, on the second, Highland handed the boys a 23-6 defeat. This was followed by a 15-6 defeat on the 9th at the hands of Arlington and on the 16th by a tie with Wappinger Falls (6-6). The record for the season was three wins, three losses and two ties for a winning percentage of .500.

Pass by Holland to Benjamin nets a six-yard gain for us at Highland Falls.

Varsity and Junior Varsity Basketball Teams

L. to R. (Seated) Vernon Beseth, William Stoddard, Irving Trainin, Harold Stier, Arnold Peaceman, John Gregory, Richard Rose, Steve Kreindler, Howard Glazer, Robert Gabrielson, Richard Gross, Harold Sherwood, Ted Gregory. (Standing) Mr. Archie Petty, Coach Jack George, Alvin Benjamin, Allan Hasbrouck, Wesley Many, Richard Benton, Sheldon Cohen, Tom Finn (Varsity Captain) Charles Holland, Daniel Bonnell, Walter Hulse, Norbert Matzinger, Donald Huffmire, Frank Jewell.

This year was to be the year for our basketeers and they did turn in an impressive record of .867 for the complete schedule. However, losing to Kingston in the Duso playoffs marred an otherwise exceptional season as Liberty finished second in the Duso with a record of 9-1. The season showed the strength of the team resting with the experienced quintet of Finn (co-captain), Benjamin, Huffmire, (co-captain), Hasbrouck and Holland and the reserves sparked by Hulse, Cohen and Many.

Opening the '46-'47 season on November 29, the boys defeated Kerhonkson 53-12 with little trouble. Then, to continue the warm-up tilts Fallsburg and Ellenville were defeated by scores of 30-24 and 46-30, respectively. To start the Duso season Newburgh was vanquished 46-21 and Middletown outscored 46-41. In a non-league game a strong Binghamton five handed our Indians a 27-56 drubbing. High point of the season came when the Tribe outfought and outplayed Kingston to the tune of 41-35. Leading our high flyers in this game was Don Huffmire who racked up 15 points and held Ed Weaver, Duso high scorer, to 12 markers. Closing out the first half, Port Jervis was beaten 47-24 and Monticello was whipped 36-24 to Liberty's great joy. This last Duso victory found Liberty uncontested winner of the first half.

Ellenville again succumbed to Liberty 44-34 to start the second half. First Duso team to fall prey to Liberty in this half was Newburgh 47-35; they were joined a week later by Middletown 53-36. Then the boys journeyed to Kingston to take on the Kiasmen and to endeavor to beat the leading contender for the Duso crown. Th Kingston men outscored Liberty 26-6 at the end of the first 16 minutes and, fighting hard in the second half, Liberty outscored their opponents. However the early lead couldn't be overcome and we were given our first Duso setback 41-56. The next week Port almost gave us our second loss when they led by two points with eight seconds to play, but Wes Many dropped a long one-hander to tie the score. In the overtime Benjamin and Huffmire outscored their rivals to hang up our eighth Duso win 33-30. Monticello was the next in line to go down to our boys, 44-37, as Al Hasbrouck led the way with 22 points. The next week our tilt with Goshen was a sad experience 29-45.

Kingston won the second half of the Duso and the playoff was scheduled for the Middletown court. The game found the Redmen up on their toes turning in a spectacular first half, leading by two points. However, the loss of Holland in the third quarter slowed the fellows down and Kingston jumped to a four point lead which they held until the final minutes. Then they really went to town and Liberty suffered its greatest defeat 41-53. The Duso season ended with Liberty's Don Huffmire placing second in the league with 165 points.

In the first round of the section nine tournament, Liberty succumbed to Highland Falls 48-38.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity led by Ted and John Gregory (99 and 95 points respectively) finished the season with a record of .615. Coach Petty's boys beat Kerhonkson, Fallsburg, Ellenville (twice), Middletown, Port Jervis (twice), and Monticello, while losing to Jeffersonville, Middletown, Monticello, Newburgh and Goshen.

Mr. Panebaker (left) is congratulated by Mr. Rutherford, Principal of Monticello High School, as Liberty sees second victory over Monties in one season, on the latter's court.

Junior and Senior Cheerleading Squads . . .

L. to R. (Kneeling) Phyllis Mergott, Carol Field, Rhoda Gregory, Sue Teller (Captain), Helen Hartman, Eileen Abramson, Mary Lou Murray. (Standing) Helen Bressler, Bernice Weitzel, Mardell Matzinger, Anne Sullivan (Captain), Miss Dorothy King, Theresa Watson, Frances DiFranco, Margaret Lodge. (Kay Pando not shown).

THE CHEERLEADERS

Liberty Red! Liberty White! Liberty High School Fight! Fight! Fight! This is one of our most familiar L.H.S. cheers which never fails to bring us through to a shining victory.

During football season the senior squad cheers alone but during basketball season the junior squad joins in. With the enthusiasm our cheerleaders have there's no reason why we don't win all our games. When Sue, the little girl with the big voice, gets that squad started nothing can stop them.

This year the juniors have shown fine ability. Held together by Ann Sullivan and in their flashy new uniforms, no one could help but cheer along with them.

Each year the senior squad participates in a cheering meet competing with other schools. This year the girls traveled to Port Jervis "to do their stuff." The squad was judged according to posture, enthusiasm, announcement of cheers and the like. The girls held their own with the larger schools and did a "bang-up" job.

WRESTLING

Enlarging the already extensive sports program, Liberty was introduced to the rugged sport of wrestling this year. Under the guidance of "Pop" Caivano, an experienced wrestler himself, the matmen journeyed to Nyack and Suffern and also held a home contest with Suffern. While our inexperienced boys lost all three contests, they gained knowledge which should help them in the future.

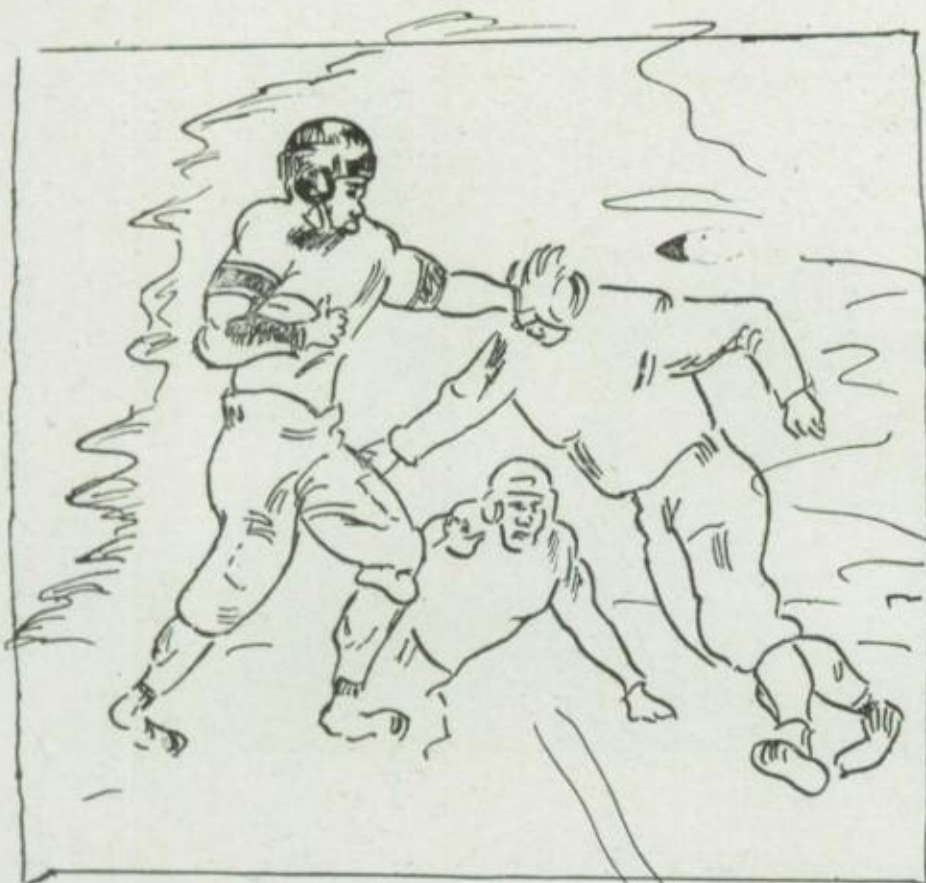

The closest contest of the year was the one at home with Suffern on January 31. In the opening matches, Helgesen and Leibowitz were pinned to give Suffern a ten point lead. In the next, Haflin outpointed his man to give Liberty three points, but Rexford was pinned and Osif and Stecher were outpointed in the following battles, making the score 1-3. All-son won his match for five points but Muthig was outpointed and Suffern had 3 more. Liberty caught on in the last two matches as Dexheimer pinned his man in 1 minute, 25 seconds, and Fraser added to it by pinning his opponent in 20 seconds, giving us the final 10 points. The score was Liberty 18, Suffern 24.

SPOTLIGHT ON SPORTS . . .

By Donald Hansen
Boys' Sports Editor

Football record would doubtless have been better were it not for the seven serious injuries sustained by squad in mid season. Winand led team in scoring with 45 points while Benjamin placed second with 24 points. Inter-rural football won by Purdue.

Basketball record best in 17 years . . . Huffmire led scoring having total of 238 points . . . Hasbrouck best foul shot dropping 22 for 35 (591%) . . . Duso ratings found Huffmire second high scorer with 165 Duso markers . . . Also placing on Duso scoring sheet were Benjamin and Hasbrouck (93 and 85 points) . . . All Duso team found Benjamin and Holland on first team and Huffmire on second . . . Liberty outscored Duso opponents 475-392 for average of 43 points per game to opponents' 36 . . . Northwestern, crowned winner of intramural league, conquered best of inter-rural league (Purdue) to become champs of school . . . Tom Finn might well have a future in coaching after the job he did for the seniors . . . Sophs won inter-class playoffs.

Records show best wrestlers to be Hafin (120-lb. class) and Fraser (unlimited) each with two wins and one defeat . . . Ping pong tournament won by Stier . . . Captain Peaceman may have a hard time with baseball team due to failure of many of last year's squad to report . . . Dave Johnson, captain of track team, one of best pole vaulters in Class B competition . . . Winners of last year's 440 yard relay (Duso) Hansen, Young, Matzinger and Winand, hope to set new record this year.

IN THE GYM AND ON THE FIELD

By Beatrice Hardenbergh
Girls' Sports Editor

Girls' sports this year seemed to be on a decline. The enthusiasm may not have been so great because of the discontinuation of awards for top noon-hour and after school teams. It was felt that the best athletes in the school were not recognized under the old system of awards. Under the new system each girl who participates in any extra-curricular sport is given credit in points. When a sufficient number of points are earned the girl is entitled to an award.

Soccer and hockey season were very slow. The after school games were discontinued because of unsportsmanlike conduct.

During volleyball season more girls turned out mainly because Miss King insisted that if you didn't play volleyball you could not play basketball. The volleyball championship game was one of the most spectacular games of the season. Eunice Freer's after school gang was scheduled to play Beetle Hardenbergh's noon hour tribe. At the half Freer's team was leading by a score of 18-3. Beetle's team came through with a victory of 25-18. What a breathtaking game!

Basketball season ended with the championship game being played off in chapel. This was an entirely new idea for a chapel program. Little Eva's noon-hour team really "skunked" the Bressler team, who were champs in the after school league.

Bowling and ping pong drew more girls out than was expected. Shirley Kranas was again girls' ping pong champ for the third consecutive year. Tessie Watson's bowling team was the winner of the first bowling tournament. Members of her team were awarded pins to designate their "striking" ability.

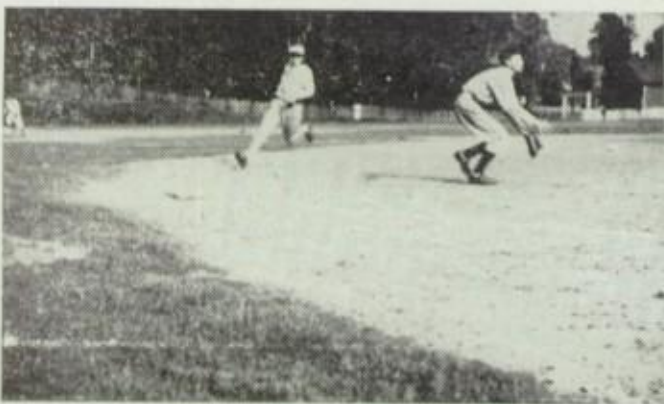

VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM

L. to R. (Seated) Daniel Bonnell, Charles Holland, Teddy Gregory, Richard Rose, Arnold Peaceman, Fred Weinstein, Donald Hansen, John Gregory. (Standing) Coach Jack George, Sanford Engelhardt, Robert Davis, Wesley Many, Herman Slodzina, Steve Kreindler, Walter Stecher.

A trophy case seems to be the most important need for our baseball team as they have gone two-thirds the distance necessary for winning our first Duso cup. By trouncing the Ellenville Blue Devils 8-2 in a championship playoff game our Indians have won the second leg on the trophy this year. The game was assured in the first inning when our warriors belted the Blue Devils for four runs and "Ace" Gregory displayed his usual pitching powers. However, the fellows added assurance by batting in four more in the following innings.

The need for a playoff arose when both Ellenville and Liberty came up with a three-out-of-four record. The Duso opener found the Indians on the weak side of a 6-5 score as Ellenville overcame a 5-3 deficit in the seventh inning. However, Monticello fell to our forces 4-3 and 10-3 to give us another chance and the Redskins evened up the score by felling Ellenville 6-1 on their own field.

Seeking third before the baseman gets the ball "Jake" Hulse helps Liberty to victory on the home diamond.

All in all a successful season was shown by our boys as they emerged with eight wins and three losses. The victories were as follows: Livingston Manor 6-3; Fallsburg 3-1 and 21-0; Roscoe 7-3; Monticello 4-3 and 10-3; Ellenville 6-1 and 8-2. They dropped games to Livingston Manor 6-5, Ellenville 6-5 and Roscoe 4-3. Sidelighting these contests we find that the Monties have been soundly beaten eight straight times in the last four years.

"Jake" Hulse led Liberty's batting attack for the year with an average of 361 percent.

TRACK . . .

The start of the '47 track season found our trackmen without benefit of track or coach. The latter problem was solved when Mr. Swettman took over the team but our boys are still practicing without a cinder track. However, undaunted, Liberty journeyed to Ellenville, Newburgh and Monticello to test their skill. At Ellenville (dual meet) the boys suffered a defeat when the Blue Devils massed $58\frac{1}{2}$ points to our $54\frac{1}{2}$. This was due to the small size of our team because we had five first places out of seven in the running events and two out of five in the field events. (Due to the size of a team, it may capture first place but second and third may go to the opposition who generally have enough men to fill all events).

Don Hansen won a first in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Dave Johnson took first in 440 and tied for first in the pole vault, Holland captured the 880, and the 440 relay team followed with another first. The field events found Liberty led by Ted Gregory with all three places in the shot-put.

Competition was keen at the Newburgh Relays this year, but honors went to our relay teams and field stars. Ted Gregory was spotlighted at this meet by breaking the shot-put record by $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches. The other winner was the 880 relay team composed of Hansen, Fiddle, Miller and Winand. Our 440 relay team fell out of first place, which they had won for the past two years, to second place. Of the nine events entered, the Redskins failed to place in only two.

On May 23, Monticello was handed a surprise when the tribe scraped up all available manpower and beat them by 15 points. In the first events (220 yard dash) Winand placed first and Hanson second. Charles Holland came through with a terrific finish to win the 880 and Johnson romped home first in the 440. The 100 yard dash found Hansen first and Winand second while the 440 yard relay again found our team far ahead. In the field, Liberty took all the places in the high jump with Houghtaling jumping to first. Two places went to us in shot-put when Gregory beat his own throw at Newburgh. Johnson won the pole vault and Benjamin won discus as Dexheimer placed second in javelin. This was the first track meet Monticello had lost on their own field in seven years and the first we had won. It was also the fifth straight Liberty sports triumph over Monticello this year (two basketball, two baseball, one track).

Increased competition in the Duso meet was the reason for Liberty's weak performance. However a few places were taken as Johnson tied for third in pole vaulting and Ted Gregory also pulled down a third in shot-put. Winston Miller placed in a 220 heat and the 440 relay team anchored by "Red" Winand rolled to a fourth place.
